PROCEEDINGS

Discovery Status Conference held. The Court raised concerns that the third-party discovery disputes previewed in the parties' status (Dkt. No. 4674) report may be untimely under Civil Local Rule 37-3. Plaintiff's counsel Simon Grille argued that there is good cause for raising these disputes now and requested guidance as to whether disputes with third parties should be by joint letter or by motion. The Court ordered that any such dispute should be raised by joint letter in accordance with Pretrial Order No. 8, and that any such joint letter must address timeliness. Plaintiff's counsel Roopal Luhana requested guidance as to whether Plaintiffs may file an administrative motion to expedite the schedule for a joint letter, and the Court confirmed that Plaintiffs could file an administrative motion consistent with the Local Rules.
